

The 2011-2012 Sociology Honors Showcase

Friday May 4, 2012

12 noon - 2pm, PSY-154

Please join us for an exciting panel of Undergraduate Research Presentations

Grant Gordin	"The Correlations Between Sexual Orientation and Gender Performance"
Michelle Spaulding	"Public Opinion of Correctional Rehabilitation"
Matthew Stone	"Social Support, Academic Efficacy, and Online Academic Procrastination as Predictors of Generalized Internet Use"

In addition, meet other members of the 2011-12 Sociology Honors Cohort and talk to them about their interesting original research:

Matthew Emmons	"Multiple Personalities Within the Rave Environment"
Robert Morita	"The Impact of Misinformation on the Legitimation of Economic Inequality"
Kristabelle Padilla	"Dating Violence Among Undergraduate CSULB Students"
Jerry Rivero	"The Effects of Family Obligations on Educational Aspirations"
Chris Snyder	"We've Got a Situation": A Study of Jersey Shore's Influence on Behaviors in Young Adults"