

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT:

A Graduate Applied Sociology Symposium

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Sponsored by the CSULB Center for Community Engagement

JOIN US FOR FOOD, DRINK AND DISCUSSION

Please Join the CSULB Master's Program in Applied Sociology on May 3rd, at 2pm in Rm 122 of the Academic Services Building for their inaugural Graduate Symposium. Expert panels will tackle the interactions and relationships between the local community, community organizations and the university. The Master's Program is looking for upper division students, faculty and community members to discuss pressing issues facing grass roots organizing and community organization in the context of theory and research. Additionally, panel experts will explore the interplay of the university in the community and community organizations. The goal of the symposium is to raise awareness of pressing community issues and to convert social theories into community action.

When: May 3rd, 2012

Where: CSULB, Academic Services Building, Rm 122 (Building located on East Side of Library)

Time: 2pm-4pm

Contact: For Parking arrangements please contact Nancy Pacheco-Cadranel at napacheco@ucdavis.edu

For all other questions please contact Professor Gary Hytrek ghytrek@csulb.edu

Other: Bring your questions and comments on the subject matter for the two panels' consideration.