Race and Ethnicity in American Television

A Three-Volume Set

Race and Ethnicity in American Television is a 3-volume set that explores people of color in American television. It will include overview essays on early, classic, and contemporary television and the challenges, developments, and participation of people of color on and behind the screen. It will include A-Z entries covering television programs, genres, themes, key programs, and biographies of actors and writers of color. (See reverse for sample topics.)
